NEWS RELEASE

Emergency Recall Notice: Jackson-Triggs Cabernet Sauvignon Light (750 ml)
Lot Code L261007 1N

St. John's, Newfoundland and Labrador, October 30, 2026 – Newfoundland and Labrador Liquor Corporation (NLC) is informing customers and the public of an Emergency Recall on Jackson-Triggs Cabernet Sauvignon, lot code L261007 1N only, due to the identification of yeast contamination. Preliminary information indicating potential health implications for immunocompromised individuals are being assessed.

NLC advised Liquor Stores and Agency Store (Liquor Express) locations to remove all stock of the recalled product immediately.

Anyone in possession of the recalled product should not consume the product. Customers should return the product to their nearest NLC Liquor Store for a full refund.

Further questions should be directed to Arterra Wines Canada:
media@arterracanada.com

Below is an image of the recalled product. Note, the recall includes lot code L261007 1N only.

About NLC
NLC is a Crown Corporation of the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador with responsibility through the Liquor Corporation Act, the Liquor Control Act, and the Cannabis Control Act for the importation, sale, distribution and management of beverage alcohol and cannabis.

All profits from NLC are returned to the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador to be reinvested in the province by funding key public services. Through every product, partnership, and service, NLC is committed to earning public trust and delivering lasting value to Newfoundland and Labrador.

Media Contact
*For inquiries regarding the recall please contact Arterra Wines Canada directly as per the information provided above in the release.

Tara Haley
709.724.1165
communications@nlliquor.com